BLOOMING GROVE, Dec. 1st 1849. Messra. S. F. BENNETT & Co.—Gents; Some time in 1843 I was attacked with King's Evil in my arm, which became so sare that I could not use it, and in 1845, mortification set in. I employed, at different times, each physician of celebrity within my reach; all told me that my arm must be amputated. From the shoulder to the forearm, my arm was full of running sores, sor of them as large as a fifty-cent piece. I then tried an Indian Doctor, who removed the morti-P. J. Shop field an Indian Doctor, who removed the mortification, but field flesh, and stopped the mortification, but feel flesh, and stopped the mortification, but found ready and willing to serve his patrona in the neatest and most fashionable style. Feeling thanks ful for past patronage, he would respectfully solithe summer of 1848, when I saw an advertise-ment of "Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla," which I read attentively, and sent for one bottle of the article. After using it a few days, the discharges from my arm increa.ed, and assumed a light color, and less offensive odor. I sent for a second bottle, and while using it I found my strength increasing, and the discharges from my arm decreasing. I continued using it until I had used six bottles, though I felt myself perfectly cured before I used the sixth bottle.--Since that time I have not felt any pain in my arm; no sores have reappeared, and I have no reason to doubt that it is thoroughly cured, for I have no reason to doubt that it is thoroughly
